INCREDIMAIL LTD. ANNOUNCES 2005 RESULTS REVENUES INCREASE 19%

Tel-Aviv, Israel - April 3, 2006 - IncrediMail Ltd. (NASDAQ: MAIL) today reported financial results for the year ended December 31, 2005.

The results for 2005 reflect the continued growth in recognized and deferred revenues. Recognized revenues increased by 19%, from $6.2 million in 2004 to $7.4 million in 2005. Recognized revenues, do not include most of the revenues from the JunkFilter Plus service introduced in July 2005, as these are deferred to and recognized in future periods. Deferred revenues more than doubled in 2005, reaching $3.3 million by year-end. The Company continues to focus its marketing efforts on the more lucrative subscription based revenues.

The Company had net income of $1.1 million, or $0.15 per share, for 2005. Net income is net of a one-time tax expense of $0.9 million, or $0.12 per share, diluted.

"The last quarter of 2005 met our expectations, with cash revenues for the quarter reaching $3.0 million, bringing our cash revenues for 2005 to $9.3 million. We believe that the recently introduced JunkFilter Plus and future products we plan on introducing shortly will continue to provide new and increasing revenues going forward," said Yaron Adler, Chief Executive Officer of IncrediMail:

Additional Financial Highlights for 2005:

- Gross profit increased 19%, to $6.8 million, compared to $5.7 million in 2004, maintaining a 92% gross profit margin.
- Our JunkFilter Plus service was introduced in July 2005 and we expect to release our IncrediDesktop product shortly. As a result, R&D expenses increased to $2 million in 2005, compared to $1.3 million in 2004.
- Operating income in 2005 was 40% of revenues, increasing to $2.9 million, compared to $2.6 million in 2004.
- Taxes on income in 2005 were $1.8 million, including a one-time tax of $0.9 million. The effective tax rate on continuing operations was 28.8%
- Cash flow from operations was $4.3 million in 2005, compared to $2.9 million in 2004.

Yacov Kaufman, Chief Financial Officer, added, "2005 provided continued growth and solid results. While R&D and sales and marketing expense increased as a percentage of sales, and are expected to continue to grow in 2006, both as a percentage of sales and in absolute dollars, IncrediMail intends to manage these scalable costs, so that it remains profitable while investing in its future revenue growth. Our cash provided by operations, together with the $16 million in net proceeds from our recent IPO, provide sufficient liquidity and a solid basis for this growth."

Mr. Adler concluded, "Our recent successful IPO will enable us to invest in growing our revenues far beyond the viral growth we experienced over the past few years. Although these investments are expected to have a negative effect on profit margins in 2006, we believe our investment in growing our revenues and the high margins inherent in our products and market, should cause margins to increase again in following periods."

The Company will host a conference call to discuss the results for 2005, at 2:00 PM EDT on Tuesday April 4, 2006. To participate, call (800) 240-6709 (U.S. toll-free number), or (303) 262-2050 (international callers).
